I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by
And that has made all the difference.

OUR SENIOR YEAR
A BEGINNING AMONG MANY ...

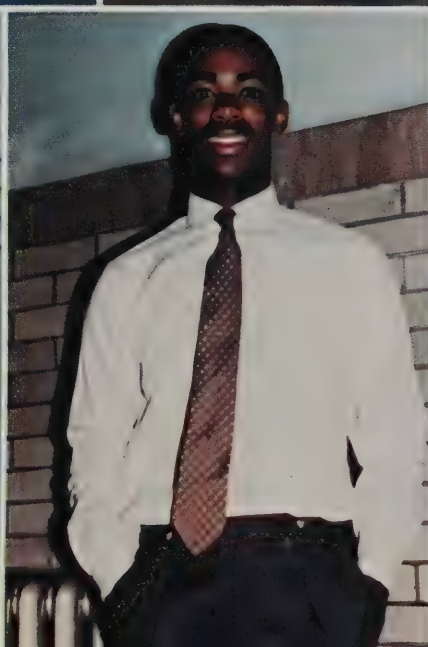

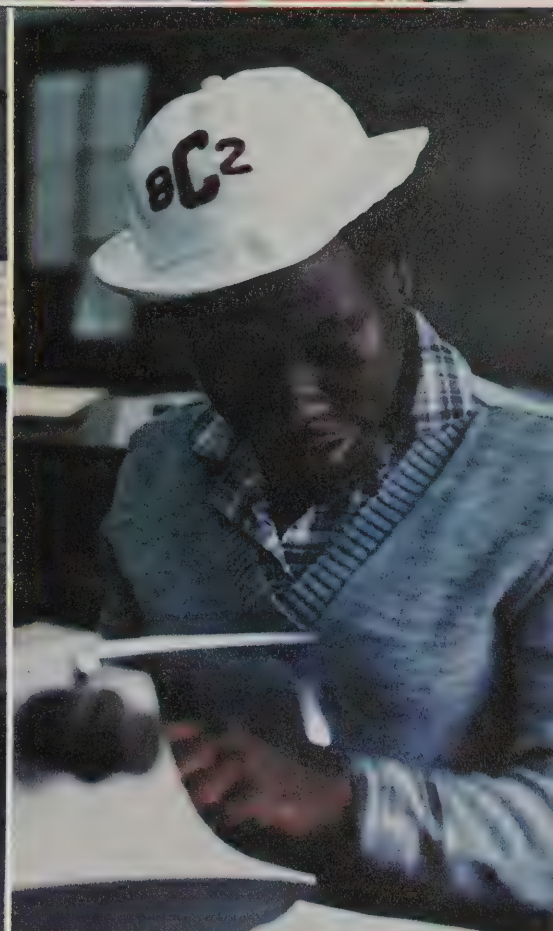

The first chapter of our lives
Will soon be completed.

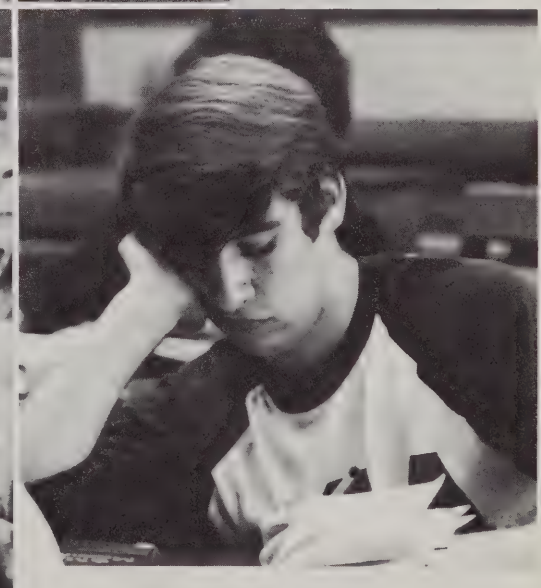

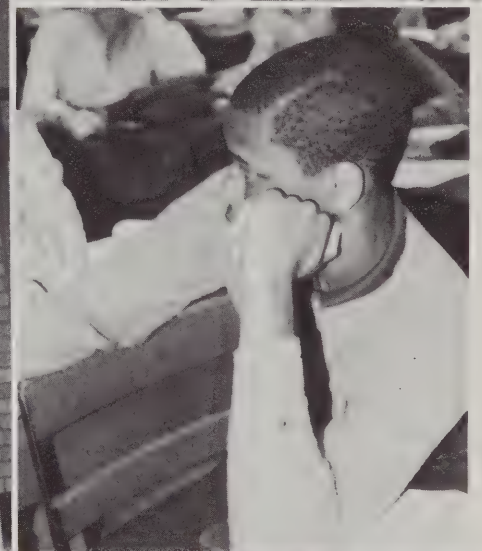

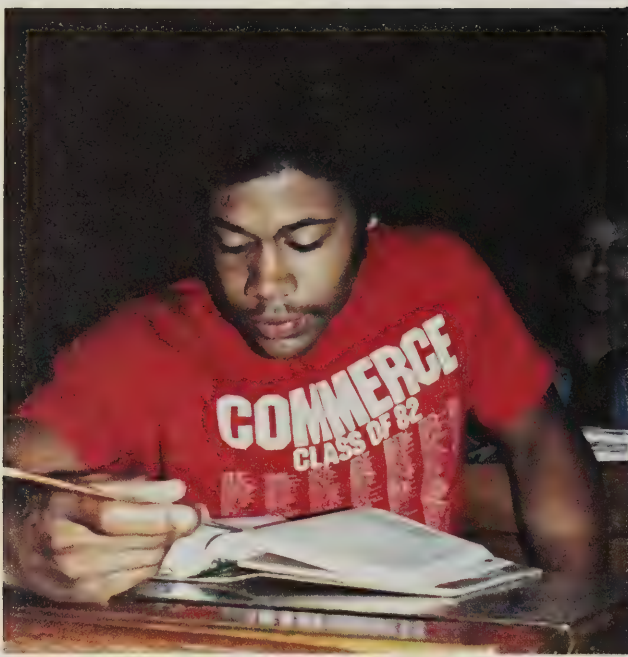

It seems that the words
Were composed and the pages
Turned all too quickly.

We have all begun
Our story differently,
Yet each journal beholds a bond.

A uniting bond of Unforgettable memories.

A second chapter must then begin,
As the world is introduced to
The Class of 1982.

With our experiences to remember
And the knowledge we have gained,
We shall make the Difference.

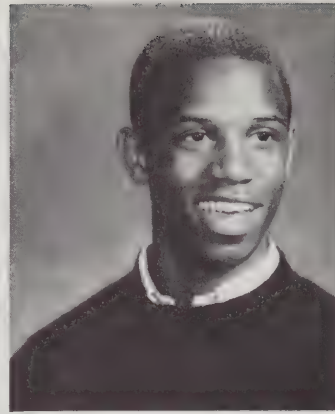

But even when we have climbed
Our highest mountain,
And made our dreams realities,
It will still be special
To turn back to the first chapter
At the High School of Commerce.

President Daryle Swatzie led a Senior Class of 397 in an exciting return to the High School of Commerce for the last time. The first day passed quickly as seniors received their hats. By 1:17 p.m., the end of the senior day, one look at certain heads soon made apparent who the leaders of the school were this year.

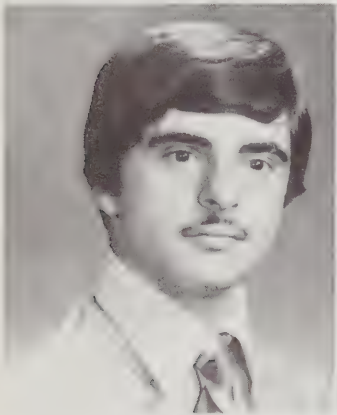

The seniors found it necessary to host several activities through the year to raise funds. The most noteworthy activity was the Fashion/Talent Show on February 11. Closing the year were the most memorable events: the Senior Banquet on May 12 at the Greek Cultural Center and the prom at the Coliseum on May 21. Official Commencement Exercises were held on June 9, 1982. Advisers to the Senior Class were Mrs. Hatchett, Miss Blakeslee, and Mr. Carrier.

A Class History

Freshman Year

On September 5, 1979, 692 freshman students entered the High School of Commerce. It was a year of trial and error, a year that held new beginnings for us all. It was also Mr. Basili's first year as our principal. We were a wild and crazy bunch, and even though we were misled by the upperclassmen, we outwitted them every time.

Elected to office were Maureen Hayes as our secretary, Thomas Penna as our vice-president, and Keith Charles as our president. As the year ended we found that we had grown both mentally and physically, and we were ready for the year to come.

Junior Year

In our second year at the High School of Commerce, we reentered as 561 strong. We were now veterans awaiting the greater challenges of our junior year. As we looked forward to broader horizons, we were juniors and proud of it.

In our class elections Audrey Hayes was elected president, Debbie Alli vice-president, and Maureen Hayes secretary. To raise money during our junior year, we held a carnation sale and sold T-shirts. The days passed swiftly, and by the end of the year we looked forward to our final year when we could walk tall and occupy the seats of honor. We wondered what our senior year would be like with Proposition 2½. Would our athletic activities be taken away? Would we lose some of our teachers due to budget cuts? These questions worried us, but we were determined to learn all we could, so that when we left Commerce we would be able to say that in spite of Proposition 2½, we made it.

Senior Year

Our senior year began on September 9, 1981. Proposition 2½ was in effect, but we vowed that we would make this year our best ever. We were no longer the followers, but the leaders of the school. Our class elected fine leadership in Daryle Swatzie as class president, Audrey Hayes as vice-president, and Lori Nashville as secretary.

As seniors we were pleased to purchase the first Commerce sweaters ever to be sold. A Fashion and Talent Show on February 11 was a dramatic display that showed off our ability to put together a sophisticated show. The best time of the year was enjoyed at the Class Banquet on May 12 at the Greek Cultural Center. We were honored before the student body on Class Day, May 14, and our Senior Prom took place at the West Springfield Coliseum on May 21; at the prom, beautiful stemmed glasses were available as mementoes of this formal occasion. May 28 marked our last actual day of leadership here at the High School of Commerce, but it was our biggest step toward a new beginning. Commencement Exercises were held on June 9, 1982, at the Springfield Civic Center.

A Special Prophecy

Finally, after 10 years, a Class Reunion is on its way! Invitations must be given out, so Traci Black and Sandy Rivera start the hard work. As they walk downtown they see the Barnum and Bailey Circus poster and notice that at the high wire Pokie is the main attraction. They go into Valley Photographers and find Maria Rugani working on the wedding album of Hubert Roque and Bridget Dempsey, who were married by Keith Charles. To their surprise, Bryant Baldwin, their adopted son, was the best man and Migdalia Garcia the maid of honor.

They decide to go to New York and find Domingo Diaz driving the bus. As they go through Broadway they notice the flashing neon sign that reads, "Dancer, Moyah Thomas, Live!" and see Lisa Miller, the owner of Bloomingdale's, buying a ticket to see the performance.

They go to a news stand to pick up their copy of the New York Times, where they read under Lorraine Nunnally's exclusive column that Florence Driscoll has been sentenced to life in prison for the murder of her college professor. They notice, too, Jackie Lloyd's picture on the cover of Ebony. They also spot Liz Kurtycz coming out of ABC, where she just finished taping another exciting episode of "General Hospital".

When they go to their hotel they turn on the TV set and watch the "Debbie Alli Variety Show" which is directed by Wilfredo Reyes. Her guest stars include Denise Diaz, the famous singer, and Therrix Brown, a well-known musician and composer. She also had a special segment on Johnny Hernandez and his partner Bob Hope as they perform for servicemen all over the world.

On their way to the airport, they see Gary Foster, the chief of police, arresting Carl Hardy for dealing drugs. They were told that Carl's roommate in prison was to be James Traynham.

In the airplane on its way to Washington, D.C., they see a special feature cartoon, "Batman and Friends", and notice that Magaly Perez is playing the part of Catwoman. Their flight attendant was Alba Rodriguez who took them to the pilot's cabin and introduced them to her fiancé, Magnum, P.I.

In Washington they went to see the Supreme Court where Daryle Swatzie was working on a special case. Then on to their last trip — to see Debbie Haberern, the first woman President of the U.S., and her secretary Rosa Nieves.

So stick around: this reunion might turn out to be quite interesting!

Raiders Trounce Sluggish Lions

Running neck and neck, stride for stride, the Commerce trackmen gave Ludlow High a run for their money in the mile relay with the final score 90-55. Excitement and enthusiasm were felt at each track meet by Red Raider fans, but it was special when athletes Mark Glenn and Kevin Dodds heaved a javelin 200 feet and throttled a shot put of 40 feet. Outstanding 1981 players were Ron Alexander, Ray Little, Mike Summers, Kevin Dodds, Mark Glenn, Frank Gonzalez, Miguel Pagan, and Edwin Berrios. Graduating team members: Kevin Dodds, Irwin Hodges, Mike Summers, Mark Glenn, and Steve Fuller.

1. Edwin Berrios uses all of his power to provide thrust for his discus throw. 2. Mr. Hodges flings the javelin with the strength of the gods. 3. Kevin Dodds squeaks over the high bar with his unconventional style. 4. Mark Glenn rids himself of a heavy burden. 5. Alfredo Virella heads for tape.

Girls Stride Through Strong Season

Hurdling past their opponents with ease and strength of stride, the 1981 Track Team took many individual honors. The 440-relay team sprinted to countless victories. Mrs. Williams named Annette Wilson as the most valuable team member, while Lynette Lumpkin rated as the most eager trackster. All the girls, however, consistently placed in competition. Coach Williams' praise was limitless.

1. Karen Brown leaps through the air with fluid motion. 2. Team spirit shows through. 3. Cynthia Jackson leaps tall hurdles in a single bound. 4. Paulette Craig and Debbie Guy experience hand to hand combat in the relay. 5. Mary Dunner runs the longest mile known to man. 6. Deirdre Slocumb uses all her power.

J.V. Looks Promising

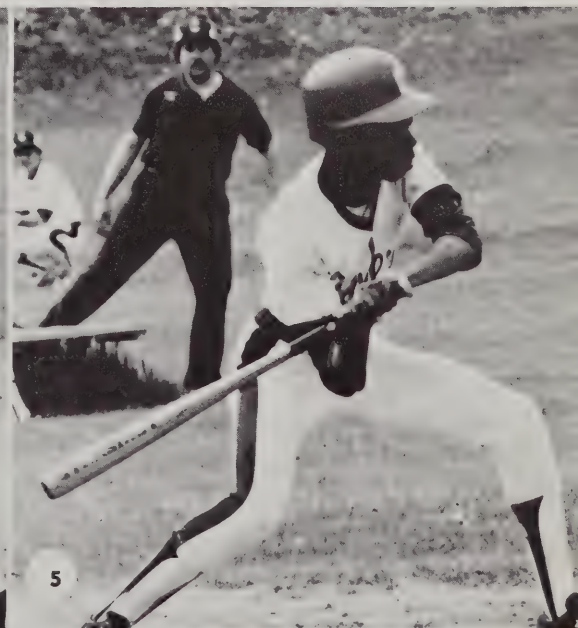

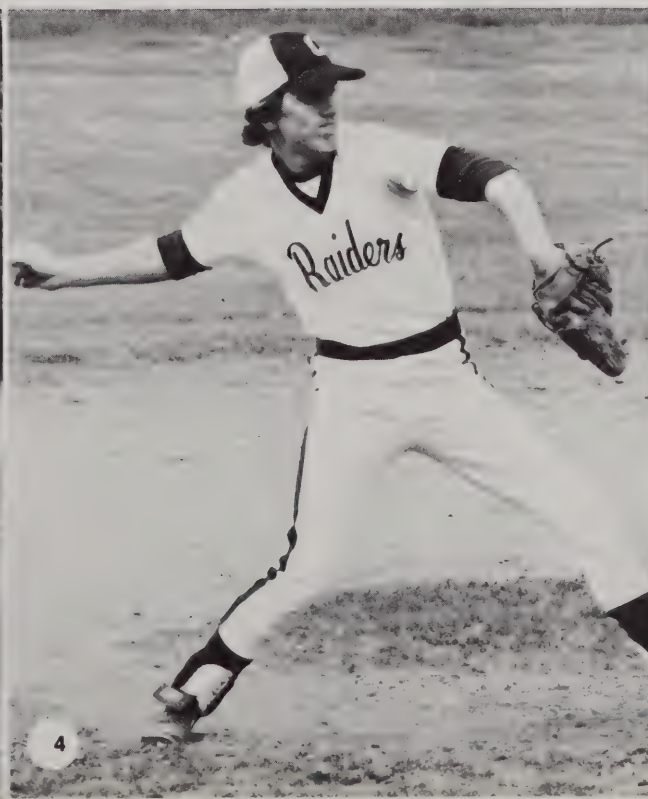

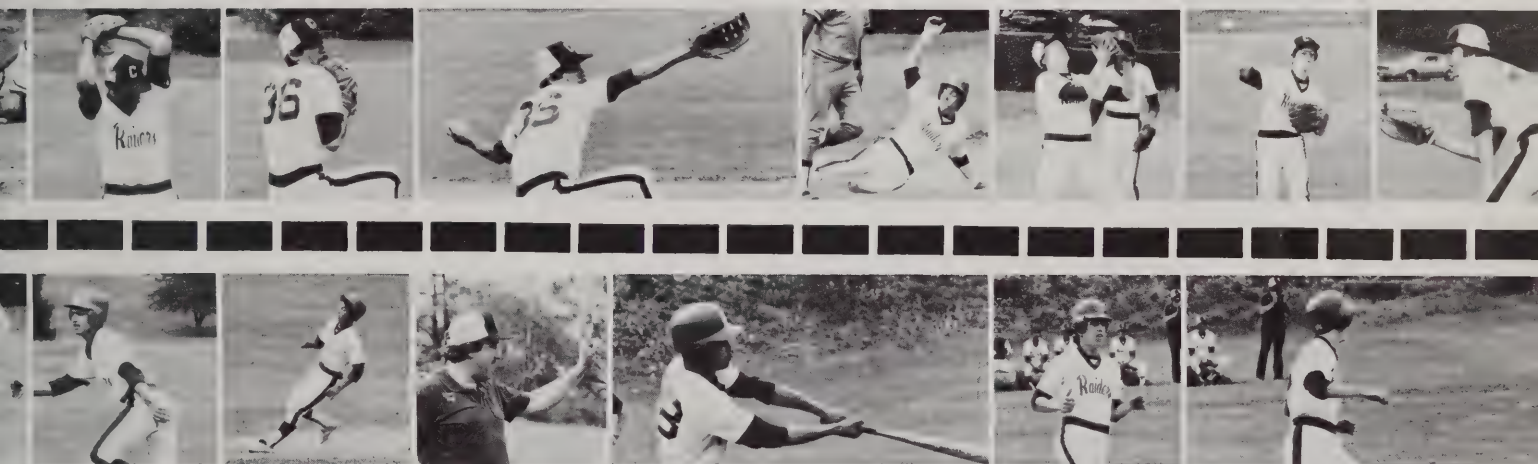

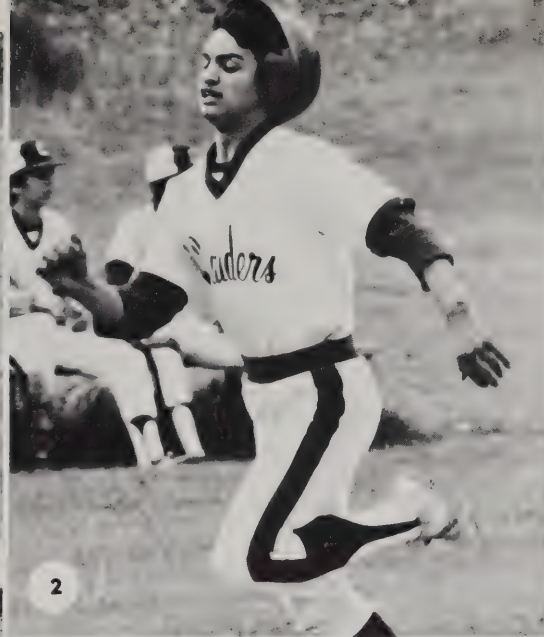

This year's J.V. Baseball Team had a very productive year. Coach Wroblewski's sluggers finished first in their division due to promising newcomers Marc Boisvert, Harold Dixon, Scott Ferrando, Israel Guzman, Brian Lambert, Albin Quinones and John Zamboni. The first J.V.'s since 1969, this spirited squad is a sure bet for success in '82. Because of their win and loss record, next year's team will be included with Division III.

1. Scott is attentive to his injury. 2. Harold fires a fast ball. 3. Israel checks his swing. 4. Albin readies his glove. 5. Marc delivers.

Bats Make Comeback

Sporting a .500 season, the Baseball Team closed their season with pride. With the expertise of Coach Dougal, the Raiders ended 6-6 in their league. Weak at the season's onset, the team slugged back, demolishing Pathfinder 21-0. Key men at the plate were Domenic Sarno, Juan Rios, and Matthew Austin. Coach's assistant Wes Long proved invaluable. Return players are Tim O'Shea, Ed Caban, Jim Bergdoll, and Eligio Valdes.

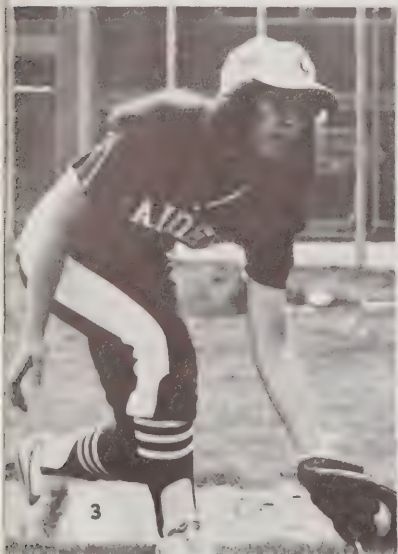

1. Dom Sarno suits up for the battle. 2. Edwin Caban touches all the bases. 3. Juan Rios leaps for a sizzling shot. 4. Ken Shea guns the runner out from third. 5. Mike McGuinnis looks for the right pitch.

Bat Girls Eye Future

Slugging their way through a tough season of hills and valleys, the Girls Softball Team turned out a less-than-average league record.

The team's finest performance came against Ware with a comeback win after a first confrontation defeat.

Maritza Miranda took team MVP honors. Coach Masucci looks to a solid future with sharp-looking upcomers Valarie Balsam and Debbie Smith. With the only graduating senior being Lucy Manzi, hopes are high for a strong return.

1. Valarie Balsam guns the runner out at second. 2. Karen Fields looks for the perfect pitch. 3. Deanna Place makes a hard defensive play look easy. 4. Debbie Smith manages that little extra into her pitch. 5. Deanna Place slides under the tag.

Field Dedicated

The newly constructed athletic fields for the High School of Commerce were dedicated in honor of the principal emeritus, Philip A. Sweeney, Thursday, October 15, 1981. Mayor Theodore E. Dimauro dedicated the fields, and Dr. John E. Deady, retired superintendent of schools, was the main speaker. Carmenceita Jones represented the Old Hill Neighborhood Council and Mr. Basili gave welcoming remarks. The Rev. Daniel J. Boyle, assistant pastor of Holy Cross Church and a Commerce alumnus, gave the invocation. Thomas J. Donahoe, superintendent of schools, presided; also, members of the School Committee were present. Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney were the guests of honor at the ceremony. We look forward to the usage of the field after school and this summer.

Girls Play Tough

Senior Lynn Farrar sparked in division play, scoring more than half of the Raider goals in a hard-fought 2-10-3 season. Second in the Pioneer Valley Conference and top scorer in Division III play, Farrar's 20 goals and 3 assists made her a respected All-League star. With determination and spirit not reflected in their record, the Girls Soccer Team was a challenge to all. Division-leader Northampton felt the pressure in a game that stunned the top team as the Raiders fought them to a 4-4 tie. Coach Wroblewski will unfortunately lose seniors Farrar, Falcon, Dunner, Rosa, Miller, Forgette, and Mastroianni.

1. Maritza Mirando is concentrating on the soccer ball. 2. Lynn Farrar gets good extension on a throw-in. 3. Evelyn Falcon passes the ball with a confident shot. 4. Myrta Rodriguez battles for the ball. 5. Lisa Miller, Heidi Forgette, and Janet Carde go for the score. 6. Lynn Farrar and Sharon Pepe discuss the game while Chris Olson grabs a drink.

1. Digna Nunez sure-footedly kicks the ball away.
2. Janet Carde tries to stop the ball ... with her elbow? 3. Mr. Wroblewski and Lynda Cyr help Maritza off the field. 4. Delores Hale handles the ball well. 5. Carmen Rosa and Linda Burt discuss the play. 6. Marie Mastroianni concentrates fully. 7. Lynn Farrar tackles the ball.

Kicks Fall Short

Surprisingly, there were some bright spots in the boys soccer season, despite a record short on victories. The booters displayed fine coordination and played good team ball, particularly in wins over Pathfinder 3-1 and Belchertown 5-2. Though the match ended in a loss, Raider play against Westfield Voke was especially aggressive.

Key performances were had by Keith Charles, top scorer, and Ken Shea, goalie.

Their skills, along with those of outstanding freshman halfback Juan Guzman, enabled the season to progress as well as it did. Coach Masi seeks new blood to replace seniors Albano, Cabrera, Shea, Parker, Aiello, Bergdoll, O'Shea, and Charles.

1. Jim Bergdoll makes close pursuit. 2. Keith Charles soars high above his defender. 3. Fred shows skilled control. 4. Ken Shea unafraid. 5. Harold dribbles by. 6. Eligio and Keith take over. 7. Heads up for Juan.

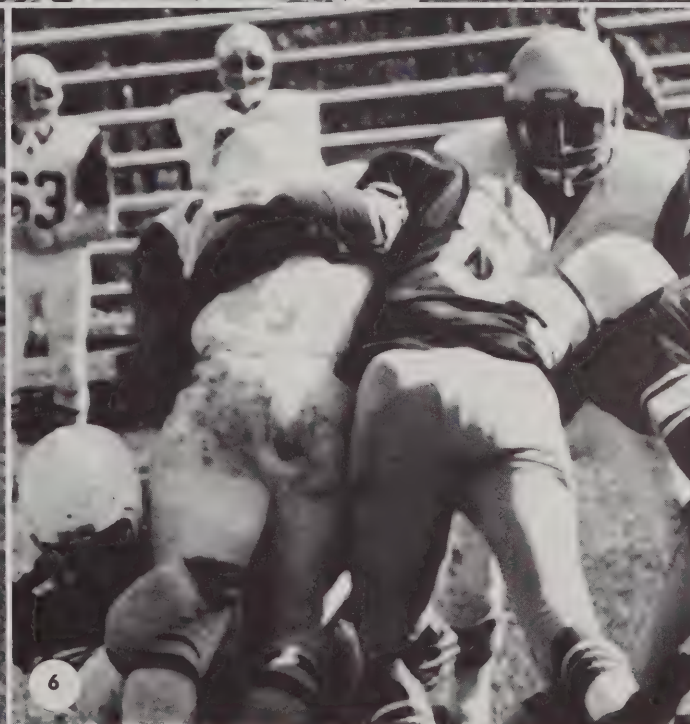

1. Fred Albano makes good use of his head. 2. Ed Cabrera shows foot skill. 3. Juan Guzman tosses down field. 4. Tim O'Shea stands ready. 5. Juan Guzman charges past the defender. 6. Fred Parker responds to the flow of play.

Gridmen Stumble

The HSC Football Team struggled through a lackluster season with a final record of 2-4. Although their wins over McCann Tech and Monument Mountain were decisive, the season's total Raider offense produced 82 points, as compared to 121 points for the opposition. Without some outstanding individual performances by Bobby Hernandez, Cedrick Smith, Arenzo Washington, and Paul Hudson, the season would have been especially dismal. Looking optimistically to 1982, Paul Hudson, Josh Haygood, Tom Holding, Marvin Slater, and Tom Brown promise to provide some much-needed offensive and defensive punch.

1. The offensive line waits to explode at the snap. 2. Jason Stewart dives for extra yards and a first down. 3. Tom Brown drives forward with a total effort. 4. Dennis Lawson hands off the ball cleanly and with complete confidence.

1. The defense gang-tackles the opposition. 2. Just for fun! 3. Charge! 4. Josh Haygood lands a crushing tackle. 5. Dennis Lawson punts. 6. Gonzalez and Haygood team up. 7. Bob Hernandez makes sure he's not moving.

Girls Rebuild

The fluctuation of the girls basketball season was due to a predominance of freshman and junior players. Though this team jumped off to two quick wins, they slowly came back to reality. The season's best outing was with Ware High, and the final outcome did not really reflect the game's closeness. Ware is "a very strong team", quoted Miss Greenleaf; "The game could have gone either way."

The style of play for this inexperienced young team is "team ball". Given another season, these girls should have a team to be reckoned with.

1. Angela Williams throws another two up. 2. Stephanie tries to steal the ball as Pam hustles in. 3. Yovana Brown blocks the ball on the in-bounds pass. 4. Karen Fields puts on a touch defensive surge. 5. Carol Guy goes for a jump shot. 6. Yovana and Pat fight for control of the ball. 7. The bench shouts for joy!

1. Pat Cheeks towers over everybody. 2. Carol Guy receives a quick pass. 3. Karen Fields dribbles the ball down court. 4. Angela Wilson lays the ball in. 5. Pat, Angela, and Carol play some zone "D". 6. Stephanie Wright passes the ball off. 7. The team gets spirits high.

Raiders Erupt Capture Title

For the sixth consecutive year the Raiders flew through another outstanding season with a 14-2 record. In compiling this tremendous record the Raiders went past arch rivals Classical and Tech twice. This year's A Division championship made two in a row with 2 Western Mass Division I championships and 8 championship games in 9 years of play. Co-Capt. Wayne Hicks, a candidate for the Lahovich Award, presented to the best player in Western Mass, had a 3-year total of over 1,000 points. Hicks, Joe Baidy, John Roberson, and Chris Pugh were all candidates for All-Western Mass selections.

1. Joe Baidy leaves no doubts as he slams in another two. 2. Wayne Hicks plays some tough zone "D". 3. Hicks lays the ball up in consistent fashion. 4. Nasser Thomas' towering frame dominates the boards. 5. Lowman Boykin sinks two and gets even after the foul. 6. Charles Smith scores outside.

1. Darro Brown dominates the defensive boards. 2. John Roberson passes off the ball. 3. Darro Brown executes a fast break. 4. Chris Pugh fights off all opponents. 5. Wilfredo Rivera lays in the ball. 6. John Roberson gets off a surprising jump shot.

Junior Junction

This year's 446 juniors re-entered the High School of Commerce looking forward to the class activities. The first order of business was a class election, and Linda Burt and Mary Morris were voted to lead the class. A fall car wash at Sears Automotive and a candy sale helped raise money needed for the Junior Prom.

Before the spring, juniors had proudly claimed possession of class rings and Commerce '83 sweaters. The year end was highlighted by the very successful Junior Prom which was held at the Oaks Inn on June 4. Class advisors were Ms. Hogan, Mr. Cignoli, and Mr. Serafino.

They Set the Pace

Sharing responsibilities and providing leadership for the school are the three principals — Mr. Basili, Dr. Midura, and Mr. Troy. With the unfortunate loss of Mr. Coleman to Van Sickle Jr. High, these administrators have found their individual and collective tasks more demanding this year. However, this threesome's many years of experience enabled a potentially difficult year to run smoothly and without incident.

New on Patrol

The school Guidance Department has become increasingly more visible because of added hall patrol duty. Seventh period hall activity is closely monitored by the counselors whose other jobs call for close communication with many students. The present counselors boast a history of Commerce experience. The only exception is Miss Joan Cormack, new to HSC this year. Miss Cormack, a junior girls' counselor, came to Commerce after many years of service at Technical High School.

English Updated

This year's English Department has not been affected much by Proposition 2½. One English teacher, Ms. Adelina DiSanti, was lost, but a new teacher, Miss Pat Pellegrino, replaced her. Last year, with federal fundings the High School of Commerce was able to order new English books and materials, especially for the business students. The English Department is planning to rewrite its curriculum. A workshop of teachers has already started the ground work for revising and updating it.

Foreign Affairs

The language program at Commerce offers the student an opportunity to study and learn a new language. At the High School of Commerce, two languages are offered — French and Spanish.

The reading program's main purpose is to help students improve their reading ability.

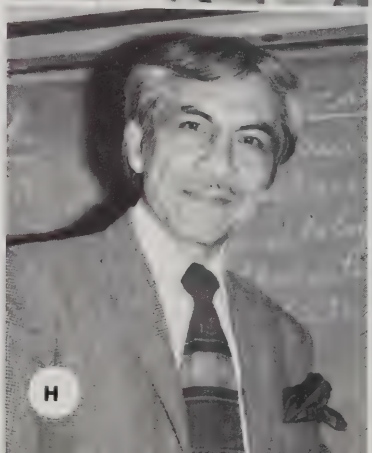

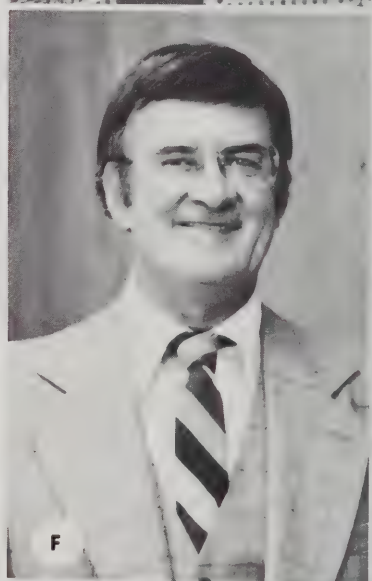

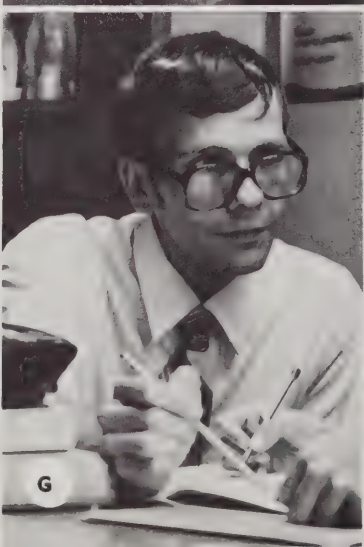

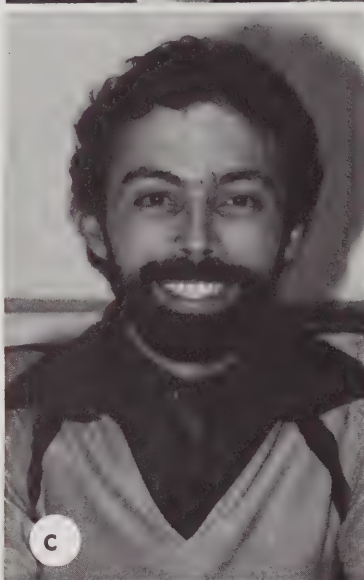

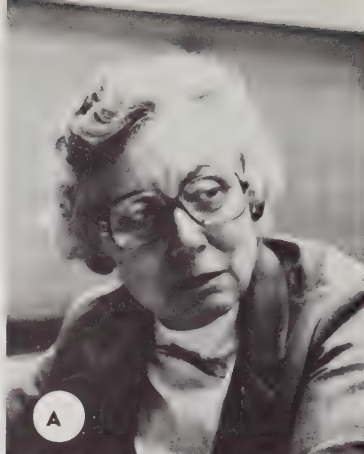

The bilingual program enables students whose first language is Spanish to learn how to speak English. They can take other courses and have extra help in Spanish to understand them.

Interest Revived

Mr. Sandberg, the chairperson of the Social Studies Department, emphasizes the importance of American history, world history, and Afro-American history. These three subjects teach us to be good citizens, help us to understand our American political system, and expand our knowledge of other parts of the world.

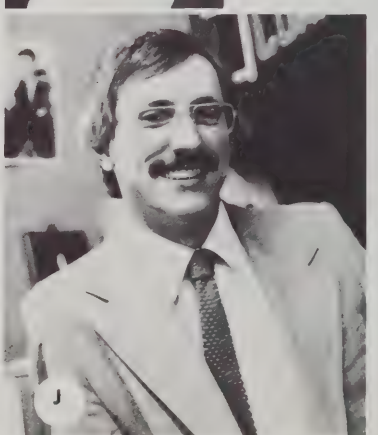

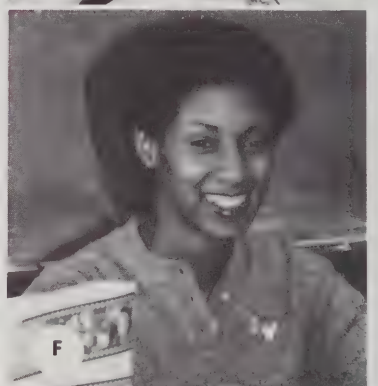

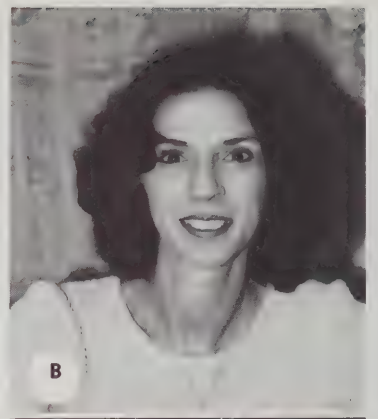

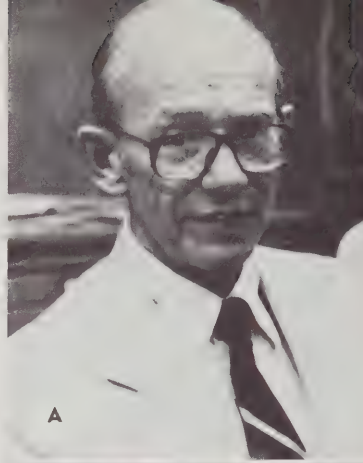

Today, more people are showing an interest in the country's political process and realizing that history unites rather than divides mankind. A country's past affects everyone's future.

Math is Troubled

The Mathematics Department has, of late, experienced a lack of student interest that has devastated the subject range of the department. Fewer students are enrolled in algebra and geometry, and trigonometry is no longer offered. Thus, in order for a Commerce student to take more advanced studies, he must attend classes at Classical. Revitalization is necessary for math here.

Area Expansion

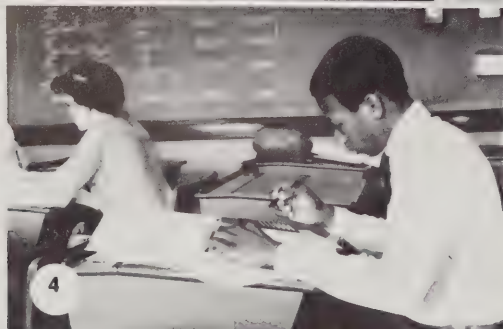

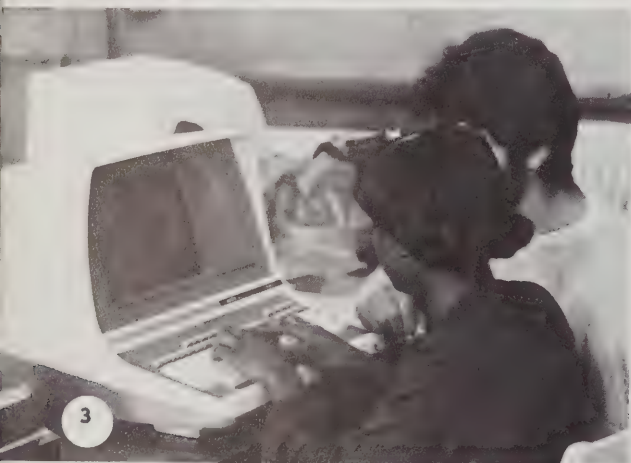

The Business and Secretarial Departments are both currently experiencing the positive growth that has long been overdue.

Now, with the largest number of computer terminals in the Springfield schools, HSC's new data processing classes can train students more effectively in computer jargon and operation. Introduced this year, the word processing course tackles the problem of training specialized personnel to effectively use electronic equipment in a centralized word processing station.

Equally Essential

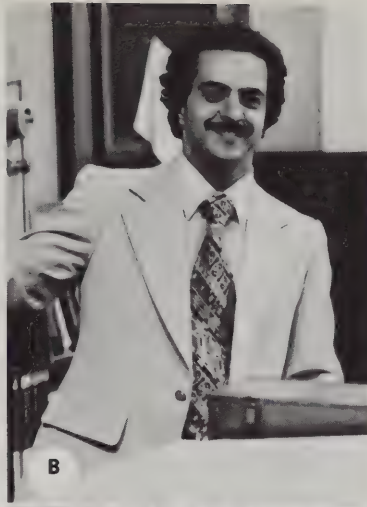

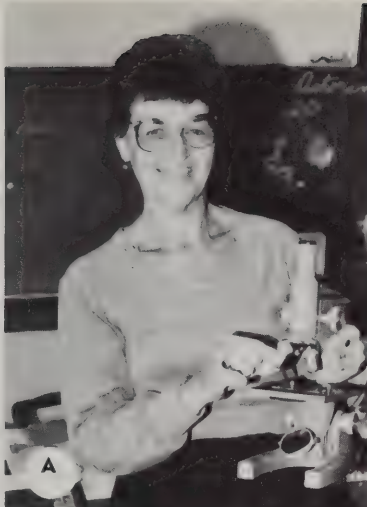

The Home Economics Department is dedicated to preparing HSC students as homemakers, and there was much more involved than needles and thread and pots and pans this year. Speakers from Marathon House and the Jewish Community Center led discussions on drug rehabilitation and alcohol abuse. In addition, students also heard lectures on such topics as career decisions, social skills, marriage, and planning weddings and showers. Mrs. Schumann's home management class prepared nutritious snacks using tofu as a protein ingredient. Mrs. Lemmon taught the basic parent skill of diapering, and Mrs. Malesta's class held a mock wedding in January. Mrs. Arnold's classes prepared food for faculty meetings.

Studying Science

The Science Department teaches all aspects of human life, from the skeleton to sex education. Study of cell growth and division, analysis of plant life, and understanding of the metric system are also integral parts of science.

This year, Mrs. Astorino has a new job; she teaches chemistry. As her first year teaching chemistry, she finds it a challenge, but feels her students are up to the task. Mr. Mylonakis is enjoying his first year teaching high school science; he "loves it".

The music classes consist of twenty-one in Concert Choir, twenty-three in Advanced Chorus, thirteen in Madrigals, nine in Band, and taking the show for high attendance, the Freshman Chorus with forty-eight.

Miss Harris is pleased with invitations for the choruses to perform at the Holyoke Mall and the Eastfield Mall as well. The choruses enjoy sharing the beauty of music with others. Miss Harris has found choosing soloists difficult because so many students perform tremendously well.

Drawing Attention

The art classes keep themselves working with many different types of art from pottery to self-portrait painting. Mrs. Schumann keeps her students busy in competitions and constantly introduces them to new mediums and fields of art she has never explored with them before.

The art classes contributed wholeheartedly to the splendid artistic display at the dedication of Sweeney Field. The student body was also treated to original and creative work in the glass display cases through the year.

Gym Classes Grow

The most loved classes at Commerce seem to be the gym classes. The gym classes consist of many different activities, such as bowling, skating, dancing, basketball and softball, etc. The gym classes are still the same except that the classes are larger this year, and Mr. Ryan is the only male teacher. The gym classes are really happy with their new field. Commerce students feel that all their expectations were fulfilled when they received a new green field to match the front lawn.

Freshman Alley

A smaller class entered Commerce this year as freshmen. Of the 549 freshmen who started the year, 153 were boys and 396 were girls. The freshman year, often difficult for those strange to each other and strange to a new school was even more trying for the Class of 1984. The class elections were never held, since no positions were contested.

After their rocky beginning, however, the freshmen planned many activities under the supervision of Mr. Masi, Mrs. Haley, and Mr. Phillips.

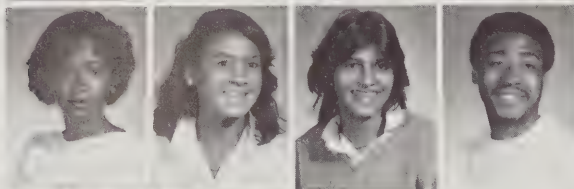

Diana, Beatrice, and Rosita would rather pose than eat.

Staff Creates Memory Book

One would be amazed at how much work the students on the Yearbook Staff have to accomplish every day in the library sixth period. Some crop pictures, while others write copy or type.

The staff strives to achieve creative ideas, layouts and designs that appeal to the student body. Crossroads, the theme for 1982, emphasizes the decisions in a senior's life. One road might lead to college while another might lead to employment. The three senior editors pictured to the right and photographer Tim Lynch ensured that this edition would be filled with many pictures. The Business Staff, under Mrs. Angelica, solicited necessary ads. Yearbooks arrived in May ... a just reward!

Norma Rodriguez is sure her facts are correct.

Journalists Set Fine Print

The task of producing 6 issues of the EXECUTIVE, a job including the endless search for worthy material, writing and editing, copy fitting and picture cropping, was directed by editors Patti Correira and Joan Kaczynski. The entire staff, veterans of the journalism class, met first period daily under the direction of new advisor Mrs. Haley. Consistent improvement from one issue to the next was the goal this crew set for themselves. This improvement was apparent as the year progressed. Photographic assignments were handled ably by Wayne Mascaro.

What It Takes To Be an Agent

To qualify to be a G.O. accountant in room 113, the Accounting I teachers must recommend to the counselor students they feel are qualified; these students must have an A or B average. G.O. accounting is a new experience for Mr. Tenczar; he feels it's a great challenge. And it's easy because of his wonderful 28 students. Sixty percent of the school had joined G.O. by mid-year, with the percentage slowly but surely rising day by day.

Pam, Alba and Debbie take count.

Our Government Lacks Power

As a total group the Student Government was not so successful this year. Individually, however, the Junior Class was. They took charge of the selling of sweaters and candy, and they also headed a successful car wash. The Senior Class presented a stylish Fashion and Talent Show. The Salvation Army Canned Good Drive was the only activity directed by the Student Council and was disappointing.

H.S. of Commerce Takes All Types

This past year the American Red Cross held two Bloodmobiles here at Commerce. Approximately 160 pints of blood were donated all together. This important event was totally run by the students. Much of the blood which is donated in Western Mass. comes mainly from the high schools' participation. Many of the students were eager to give their blood, although a small percentage of the possible donors were turned away for various reasons. Much hard work was put into this humanitarian project.

Miss Hogan, the advisor, and the students who gave of their time to coordinate this program deserve a lot of recognition.

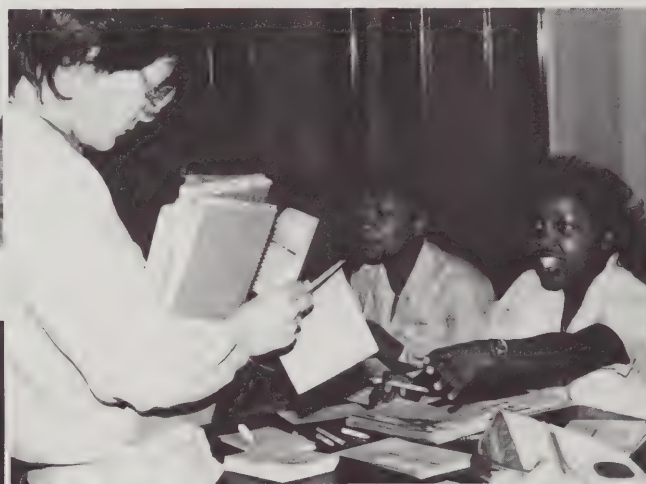

Stacey Rutherford proves she has a heart.

Coming to the Rescue Again!

H.S.C. owes many thanks to its aides and patrols. These students take the responsibility for various school tasks. The office aides help with the office filing and daily attendance. The AVA group makes sure that all the audio-visual equipment is in perfect running condition. Mr. Ellison's aides keep a close check on library attendance and chase delinquents for overdue books. Guarding our halls from intruders and disorder are the student patrol.

Gigi Mason plays it off like she's working.

Clockwise from left: Arenzo Washington flashes his Close-Up smile; Maria Santaniello can't wait for first lunch to get over; Fred Albano can't help but smile at all the fine girls; Charles Marshall wonders if he said something wrong; the audio-visual aides show that they mean business.

Honor Society Offers Services

The National Honor Society, founded here in 1962, is made up of 40 students with outstanding qualifications in the areas of leadership, character, scholarship, and service. These students use their abilities to serve the school as teacher, library, and office aides. In addition, N.H.S. members also serve as tutors to students who need help. On October 22, 1981, the N.H.S. inducted 30 new members to the group. The two-year members, along with Miss McCarthy, Mr. Basili, and Miss DiSanti, congratulated the new members. December 18, 1981, all National Honor Society members celebrated Christmas by exchanging gifts at the Christmas party.

At the Top Of the Charts

Top 10 Money Makers

The movies have been one of America's favorite pastimes for over 50 years. Movie themes and production costs have certainly changed since the days of Charlie Chaplin and silent movies. But the enjoyment is still the same.

Raiders of the Lost Ark and Arthur were the top money-making flicks of the year.

Other films (Superman, 9 to 5 and Stir Crazy) also grossed handsome sums.

In music, the soul scene was "Never Too Much" for Luther Vandross. He captured many fans with his hit single "Super Lady". Peabo Bryson, love ballad expert, soared on the charts with "The Flow of Love".

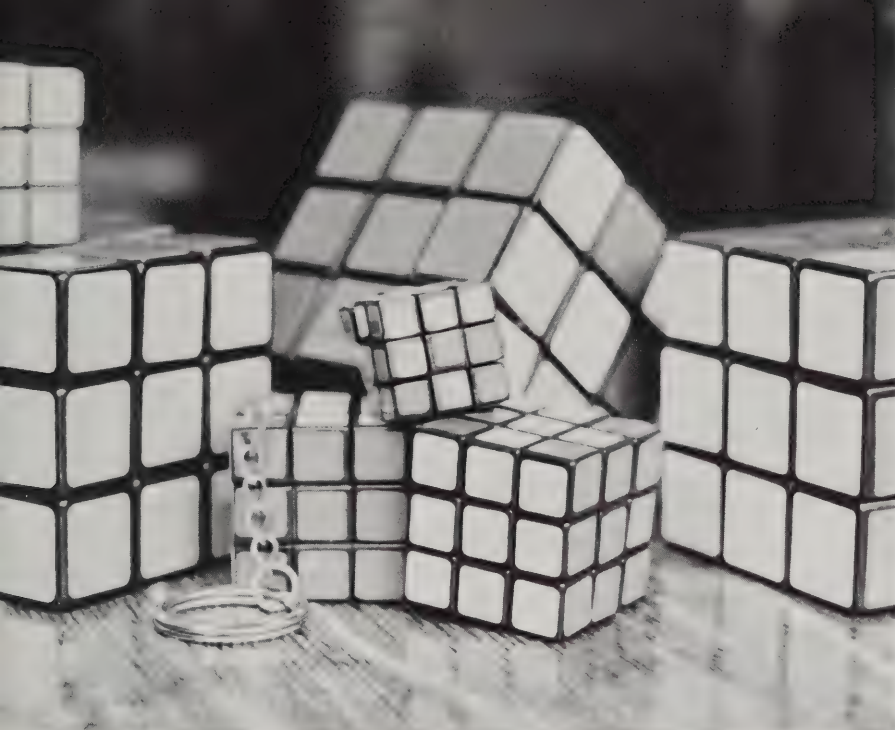

Portable cassettes with headphones made it big and allowed people to hear music more often.

The Rolling Stones are one of the most "Respectable" groups in music world. While their "Shattering" album Tattoo You is climbing to the top of the music charts, the Stones are showing no "Sympathy" on their 1981-'82 tour. They've been giving "Satisfaction" to audiences for over two decades and have proven again that "Time is on their Side". Another band, however, has been giving the Stones some tough competition. REO Speedwagon made millions last year with their hit "Hi Infidelity".

NEVER TOO MUCH

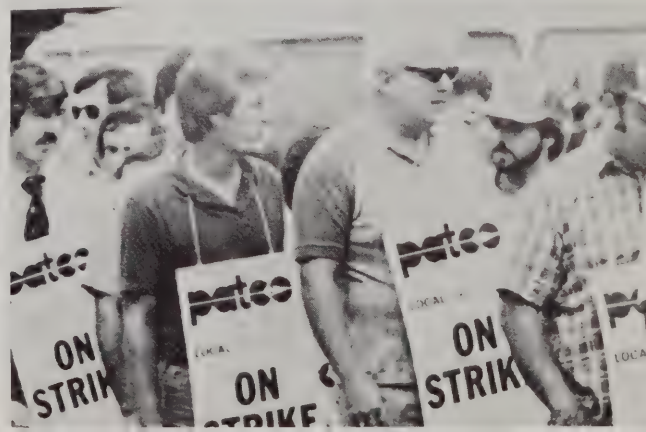

The Year — Good and Bad

The events that happened in '81,
Will not be forgotten for years to come.
There was the good along with bad,
There came the crazes along with the fads.
Undoubtedly, the Rubik's Cube drove us insane,
As the popularity of video games soared to acclaim.
Lady Di was transformed to the Princess of Wales,
While Luke and Laura's marriage began to prevail,
The ERA had come a long way, so it seemed,
They cheered when Sandra O'Connor was put on Supreme,
As 52 hostages came home to their place,
Our space shuttle, Columbia, took off into space.
The labor union, Patco, wanted some rights,
And to prove it, they staged a two-week long strike,
Mr. Reagan told them it's against Federal Law.
And solemnly warned to fire them all.
In Ireland, Bobby Sands starved for amends,
While in Egypt, Sadat's life came to an end.
Down in Atlanta, for more than 2 years,
The people were constantly living in fear.
28 children killed in such a short time,
Who could possibly commit such a vicious act of crime?
As all things must end, and soon we must part,
The year just gone past is still in our hearts.

Moi and Ms. Shields met splashing success in the past year; both of these women have certainly achieved celebrity status.

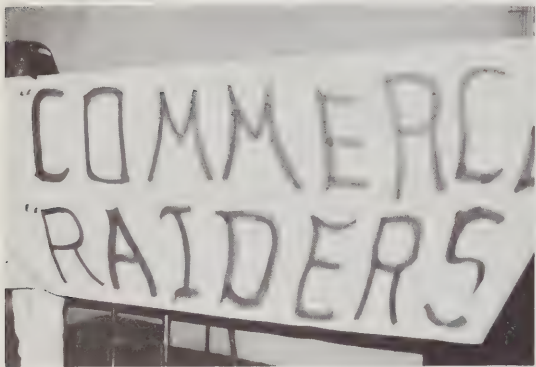

Ex-Beatle Ringo Starr stirred up society page news with Catherine Bach while Valerie Bertinelli did the same with Eddie van Halen. Romance was in the air!

Cheerleaders Get Green Light

There was no cheer at the onset of the year's athletic season; Proposition 2½ had seen to that. Funding for the cheerleading program was cut, but the School Committee was sympathetic to the cause and the activity was reinstated. The Commerce cheering squad quickly made up for lost time and practiced diligently to be ready for the basketball season.

Drilled into shape by new advisor Ms. Foster, the girls hit the courts with new cheers and improved precision. The pom-pom brigade performed for the entire student body at the year's only pep rally preceding the season opener with Chicopee.

Banners filled the auditorium at the rally.

The 1981-1982 cheerleaders made an attractive squad even when not in motion.

Lorraine Nunnally and Moyah Thomas go to great lengths to strrrretch a cheer.

Pictures left to right: Aida Martinez leads the squad in; Vincent, Freddie, Cedrick and Tim added creativity; front row rally cheer is mixed; the team takes cheers sitting down.

In the Spotlight

Miss Florence A. Greenleaf

This year we have a very special spotlight on Commerce's own author and gym teacher, Miss Florence Greenleaf. Miss Greenleaf began her interest 20 years ago in candlepin bowling, and her curiosity in the game started her instruction. Miss Greenleaf attained her Masters Degree from Springfield College with a thesis on instruction in candlepin bowling. She and Carl E. Green, former Commerce graduate and owner of State Bowl, collaborated on the book, which explains the history of the game. Her book, The Game of Candlepin Bowling, is the product of many years of research and stands as probably the most important contribution ever made to the game. All of bowling cannot help but benefit greatly because of it.

By popular demand Lorraine Nunnally was chosen as Student Government Representative by her fellow classmates. She attended a Student Government Convention in Boston for a day and had the opportunity to meet several area legislators. A tour of the Boston State House was also part of her day. A member of the Executive staff, Lorraine was active in the class, helped organize the Fashion Show, and kept busy with a job after school.

Keith Charles has been kicking away at soccer for the past 6 years. Even as a freshman Keith contributed a great deal to HSC's Soccer Team and ended up this year's leading team scorer. A past class president, "the minister" has made plans to attend college and also expand his knowledge of the game of soccer.

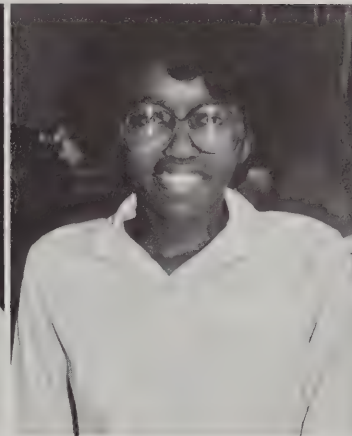

Debbie Haberern is an extremely talented and gifted young lady as well as the recipient of many awards: the Brown University Book Award, Outstanding Biol-

By being such an exceptional honor roll student, Phyllis Sparks was accepted into the Who's Who Among American High School Students. She also received a commendation from the National Achievement Schosores missed by the team.

Defensive end for the Football Team, Cedrick Smith surprisingly also played center. His speed and agility made up for his lack of size. Cedrick will enter the Marines upon graduation. He is an avid guitarist and photographer.

One of the area's most coveted awards, the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award (Daughters of the American Revolution) was presented to Joan Kaczynski. This special award strives to preserve the ideals that America fought for in the Revolution. It is presented to the girl who demonstrates the most courtesy, loyalty, cooperation, and consideration for others.

Wayne Hicks was the star of the basketball court as he scored over 1000 points in 3 years. "Star" has been playing ball for 8½ years and plans on attending Northeastern University and continuing his great career.

Karen Fields was a star on the Girls Basketball Team. Over 2 years Karen had a 13 point average per game. She plans to attend Northeastern, but to postpone sports until her second year. Karen has 5 trophies credit but also enjoys modeling and tennis.

After Hours

Our students at the High School of Commerce get involved in many outside activities. Many of them have after-school jobs. Others belong to basketball or baseball teams. Jobs range from working in supermarkets to working in insurance agencies. The enthusiasm of these and all students will be helpful in the years to come.

Creativity is around us in many students who can successfully express themselves in forms of poetry and art work. This year's art classes were very productive and created some fabulous pieces of art. We have also discovered some fine poets in Commerce, who have donated some of their thoughts to the 1982 yearbook. To them, we give our thanks.

What Can I Say?

What can I say
to a friend such as you?
I have let you down completely
Because of the dumb things I do
What can I say
to you my dear friend?
I don't do it purposely
You, I don't mean to offend,
What can I say?
to make up for my wrong?
I suppose there's not a thing
Not even my song.
What can I say?
The words just won't come out
If I could just say what I want
But I don't know that it's about.
What can I say?
My mind is blank
When I let you down
My whole life just sank.
What can I say?
When I know what I've done
When I want to end
But know it's just begun.
What can I say?
To a friend such as you
I have let you down completely
Because of the dumb things
I do.

The Times We Had
When I think of you
I think of the times we had
When we were together happily
and I was never sad.
But now the times have changed
and you and I have parted
I know the dreams I had of us
now will never get started.
But there is one last thing I want you to know
The love that I feel for you
Will never stop, but always grow.

Indian Cry

Where has all my land gone?
 What has the white man done?
 Our land used to be of the free.
 Now no one sees the Gods we see.
 You took us from our land of peace
 You told us our harmonized living must cease
 How can we Indians continue to be proud,
 When you haunt us like a grey thunder cloud?
 Have you no thought that this is our land, and that we grew this food with our hands?
 Yet now you tell us what we can and can't do no longer are there followers of the Apache and Sioux.
 Indian legends try to speak of always being a friend but you are now an enemy; cuz you've made this our end
 Few are left to carry on and believe 'cuz you even forbid us to conceive
 The day will come someday
 When all Indians are buried away
 That is the day that people will forget how to give
 That will be the day that's not worth to live.
 But for now, they stand together, with only a tear
 They stand together and shudder with hatred

Memories

Behind me are memories that I shall
 Keep forever
 Some are pleasant and others are not
 But they are my possessions and
 May never be transformed

Ahead of me are forming memories which
 I only hope will be even better
 Quality than those of the past

For when a life comes to its closing
 What is left to look back upon but
 The memories which have gradually
 Been molded.

Memories are merely reflections and it
 Is put to their creator to make them
 Worth remembering.

Drama Plays New Role

For the first time in many years, the Drama Club presented a major production. Under the skillful direction of Ms. Costa, "A Quiet Christmas" was enjoyed by all in a nearly full auditorium.

John Hernandez and Crystal Fitch gave strong performance in leading roles.

John graduates to the Marines, but Crystal will return next year. Debbie Alli, who played two roles, plans to be an actress. Special contributing members of the cast: Therrix Brown, Mona Buzzzell, Sandy Crespo, Jeanette Dones, Michele Hyde, Aaron Thomas, and William Warner.

A mystery thriller was planned for spring, hoping to sustain excitement in stagecraft.

The cast wishes everyone a Merry Christmas by their newly trimmed tree.

Debbie Alli, the maid, appears with a cup of coffee for Mrs. Evans.

Therrix Brown plays with a lot of style.

Seniors Stage Show in Style

This year's Fashion/Talent Show was held on February 11, 1982. After months of preparation and hard work, the show was a great success and the months of agonizing frustration were made worthwhile. Many students signed up for the show, but the number was cut down as the hard work began.

Those students who were truly dedicated stuck it out and made the show a success. Participants in the talent portion were Denise Diaz, Judy Scott, Kristina Scott, Jackie Wright, Audrey Hayes, Lisa Miller, Traci Black, Arenzo Washington, Wilfredo Reyes, James Traynham, and Tracy Willingham.

Bryant Baldwin shows one of his many mystifying moves.

Karen Fields and Edwin Caban sneak a knowing smile in during the show.

Sandra shows off her skills on stage.

John and Daryle share the spotlight.

A group of the Fashion/Talent Show models give their audience a last look.

David Simon strikes a pose to hypnotize the ladies.

Beauty Reigns at Prom

The Sr. Prom took place on Friday, May 21, 1982, at the Colosseum. Reigning at the prom was Prom Queen Sharon Wimbish; her court included Lisa Miller, Traci Black, Lori Nashville, and Alba Rodriguez. These girls had been elected earlier in the year by their sr. classmates. The large turnout, the soft music and formally attired couples made this a memorable evening for all.

Darrell King sports leg warmers.

Sue Mihalski models the influences of punk rock.

Up and down: designer pockets.

Clockwise from picture at left: anything goes, but these boots worn by Mrs. Haley show that warmth is a big plus; footwear is especially distinctive with the western look in boots and the sporty practicality of "rubber duckies"; knickers create an attractive line; Lesenia Layne is particularly fashionable in her mini-dress, which doubles as an exceptionally long sweater, and her stockinged legs.

What's "In"

With all the drastic changes that took place this year, fashion would not be outdone. With styles definitely on a back swing, pants, once again tight and very thin-legged, reflected the 30's and 40's. Punk brought everything out of the closet, and the mini-skirt returned in a sweater material. Leg warmers (also worn by men!) as well as knickers were re-run with flat, pointed shoes. Thin headbands topped outfits for a new twist. Designers from Klein to Izod continued stronger than ever. And jeans? They're forever!

Sorry, I Gave At the Office

Many people react in a negative way to anyone who sells anything. But, due to escalating costs and restricted budgets, many schools had to turn to fundraising activities to make ends meet. The High School of Commerce was not any different. With the help of the Caduceus staff the school enjoyed a carnation sale at Thanksgiving, while the Junior Class and yearbook staff sold candy bars for profit. In addition, the juniors conducted a car wash and the school's first sweater sale. The seniors choreographed a sophisticated fashion show that displayed current styles. All these activities were successful. Toys for Tots was not a fund-raiser, but was a project to raise something worthwhile.

Maria Rugani asks Cedrick Smith, "Which girl is this carnation for?"

Chris, Donnette and Brenda take count.

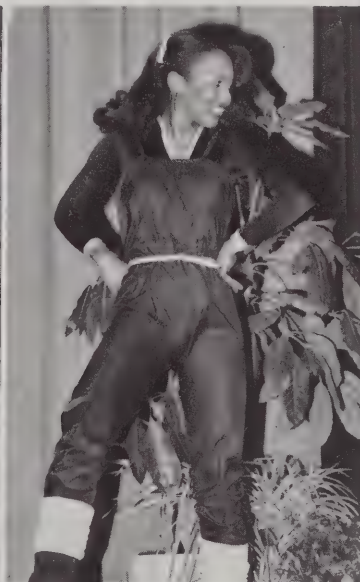

Clockwise from above: Pam Westmoreland, Debbie Alli, Joy Winters and Mona Buzzell are pleased with sales at lunch; the money's in the bag with Chanita Shaw and Linda Burt; Scott signs out candy to Brenda; out of all the students in this school, only a few were willing to contribute toys for Toys for Tots.

Mrs. William's junior dance class expresses its version of Fame.

Tracy, caught with an illegal headband.

Moyah Thomas strikes a fashionable stage pose.

Alesia, Theresa, Angela, Tyra and Lori think that if the administration knew the hamburgers were that funny they wouldn't serve them.

Eric follows tradition and feeds Gina, his bride.

Laura flirts with the photographer.

Tony and Judy aren't too close for comfort.

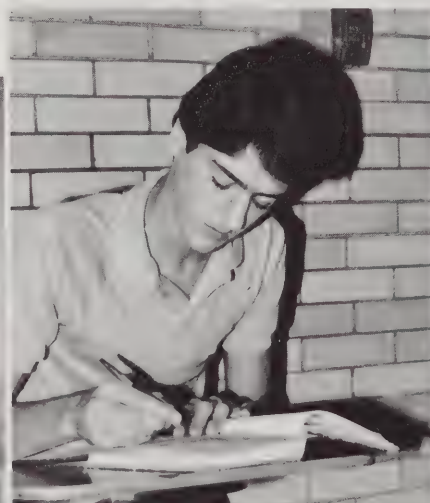

Sandra Pabon takes a rest before duty.

Doesn't John Hill need milk for his straw?

Man is challenged today to excel in almost every endeavor . . . those who do succeed often trace the beginnings of their performance pattern to accomplishment in high school and to those who offered stimulation and inspiration in these formative years. Josten's has long been a partner to these educational leaders in providing a means of motivation and the rewards of recognition, and Josten's products have become tangible symbols honoring perseverance and achievement. The class ring is representative of the fine traditions of school spirit and unity. The yearbook provides a lasting memento of the year's accomplishments. The diploma is a lifelong record of scholastic success. The graduation heralds this achievement. Awards recognize academic and athletic leadership.

More than 3,000 Josten's employees are dedicated to your complete satisfaction.

Acknowledgments

The success of any venture is often dependent on the efforts of many whose contributions go unnoticed. The yearbook is no exception. This year the Caduceus staff encouraged the use of student art work. The Art Department, under Mrs. Schumann, created division page designs and other needed art work. Sandra Hubbell designed and Dan Brown rendered the masterful cover for "Crossroads"

Other Art Contributors

Deanna Place	Dawn Oertel	Myrta Rodriguez
Edna White	Sonia Colon	William Warner
Fred Murphy	Tony Rodriguez	Emma Santiago

Volunteer typists who helped out in emergencies were Deanna Place, Darlene Provost, Raylene Clark, Debbie Haberern, and Maureen Hayes.

Thanks also to Mrs. Angelica's business staff and to faculty members for their cooperation.

Certainly, "Crossroads" could not have become such an extensive memory book if it were not for Valley Photographers and Timothy Lynch, student cameraman.

The staff's appreciation of these efforts is unlimited.
